Travel Essentials

CANVA STORIES

Passport and Visa

Ensure your passport is valid for at least six months beyond your planned stay. Check if you need a visa depending on your nationality. Mauritians need a tourist visa prior to departure flight.

Flight Tickets and Itinerary

Have your flight tickets booked and your travel itinerary handy. Consider travel insurance that covers medical expenses, trip cancellations, and other unforeseen events. (just in case!)

Health Precautions (important for first timers)

Please make sure you are up-to date with your vaccinations (typically if you will be exploring Bali's rural areas/Outside of Ayana) and bring necessary prescriptions and over-the-counter medications.

Avoid having tap water/ ice cubes as you may get 'Bali Belly'. (you don't want a holiday spent in the bathroom!)

Wedding Related Travel Kits

Bring your wedding attire, comfortable shoes, chargers and power banks, hangover cures, and emergency kits (eg: stain remover, pins, band aids).

Local Currency (RS 1 = ~IDR345)

Carry Indonesian Rupiah (IDR) or ensure you have enough cash or have a travel card to get you around (We use Revolut)

Appropriate Clothing

Pack lightweight and breathable clothing suitable for Bali's tropical climate (21C-30C). Sarong/ scarf are required if you wish to visit any temples. Don't forget your sunscreen and sunglasses!
